"Hi [name], it's just Julien with French Equity Partners. I find off-market deals in [county] and I'm building a short list of buyers I can send them to first. Are you still buying?"

The questions

#	Ask	You learn
1	"What are you buying right now? Areas, ZIPs, property types?"	Buy box: where and what
2	"What's your perfect deal? Price range, beds/baths, condition, construction, flood zone?"	Their ideal criteria
3	"What do you do with them: flip, rent or BRRRR? And what numbers do you need, like % of ARV or rent?"	Exit strategy · their maths
4	"How many have you closed in the last 6 to 12 months?" Ask for an address or two.	Proof they really buy
5	"How do you fund: cash, hard money or private? Can you send proof of funds? How fast can you close?"	Can they close · speed
6	"Are you OK with assignments, and with a non-refundable deposit? Who's your title company?"	Deal terms fit

Bonus: "What's the worst part of finding deals for you right now?" Their pain tells you how to be their go-to wholesaler.

Vetting: real buyer or not?

Green flags	Red flags
Recent closings you can check on public records	"I'll know it when I see it", no buy box
Sends proof of funds without fuss	Avoids proof of funds or deposit questions
Clear numbers (e.g. 70% of ARV)	Is really another wholesaler with no buyer behind them
Has a title company and closes in 7 to 21 days	Vague on how they fund

Check after the call: look up their LLC on Sunbiz and their recent purchases in the county property records.

Straight after: log their buy box and vetting result in the FEP CRM, and tag them as A (proven), B (likely) or C (unverified).
